WILL CELEBRATE DIAMOND JUBILEE

RIGHT REV. FROWIN CONRAD ORDAINED PRIEST 60 YEARS.

WORKS AT CONCEPTION FORTY-THREE YEARS

Catholic Parishioners of Jefferson Township Will Unite to Do Honor to Abbot.

The priests and congregations of the Catholic churches of Conception, Conception Junction and Clyde will unite in a monster celebration early in October in honor of the diamond jubilee of the Right Rev. Frowin Conrad, O. S. B., Abbot of Conception Abbey at Conception Junction. The exact date for the celebration has not yet been decided on.

Sixtieth Anniversary.

Thursday marks the sixtieth anniversary of the ordination of the Reverend Abbot to the Catholic priesthood, and the Catholics in and about Conception are planning to celebrate on that day. The Reverend Abbot, accompanied by Father Frowin Mergen, is on a tour of inspection of the various monasteries under his jurisdiction, however, and found it impossible to be in Conception for Thursday. Consequently, the celebration will be posponed until either October 1 or October 8.

At this time bishops and priests from this section of Missouri will gather at the monastery to take part in the exercises and to offer congratulations to Reverend Abbot Frowin. A special feature of the services will be the bestowal of the papal blessing on all those who are in attendance. This privilege has been granted to the Reverend Abbot by Pope Pius X, who has written a personal letter congratulating the abbot on his jubilee and giving him the apostolic blessing.

At Conception 43 Years.

The name of Reverend Abbot Frowin is closely bound up with the history of the Catholic church in Nodaway county. One has only to visit Conception and its surrounding chain of Catholic parishes to realize the importance of his accomplishments as a church worker and community builder. He arrived in Conception in 1873, and for the last fifty years has never ceased in his efforts to make the monastery and churches a power for good in the county.

The Reverend Frowin Conrad was born on November 2, 1833, at Auw, Canton Argau, Switzerland, of pious parents, who gave to the church five priests and to their country a statesman of national reputation. Having concluded his studies at various places in his native country, he joined the Benedictines of the Abbey Engleberg, made his monastic vows on August 15, 1853, and was ordained priest on September 14, 1856. He held various honorable positions in his monastery until he was called to the United States.

Arrives at Conception, 1873.

The first care of Father Frowin when he arrived at Conception, Sept. 18, 1873, was to erect a suitable dwelling for the monastic family. It was a two-story frame building, 25x50, which he dedicated on December 8, 1873. On Christmas night of the same year he began the recitation of the divine office, and on New Year's day, 1874, seven candidates from Europe were invested with the habit.

With the increase of the monastic family the want of house room was felt more keenly every day. Finally, in 1880, the west wing of the present stone and brick building was erected. On April 5, 1881, Pope Leo XIII crowned the monastic foundation by raising it to the dignity of an abbey, with the Right Reverend Frowin Conrad as its first abbot. The solemn benediction and installation of the new abbot took place on June 29, 1881.

Monastery Incorporated.

On May 12, 1882, the monastery was incorporated under the laws of the

Scoville Sayings

You don't believe in revivals—well, your daddy, the devil, doesn't, either.

Show me a person who doesn't believe in soul saving, and I will show you a person in league with hell.

Daniel went to the lion's den with more willingness than some Christians go to prayer meeting.

If I had been a politician some folks would have been here with mouths open and eyes as big as fried goose eggs.

Some Christians are in good standing—God knows how long they have been standing.

Other Christians have their names on the church but they have stopped rolling.

The devil has New York City by the tail and it's on the down grade.

If it weren't for the country towns the cities would rot.

This is a God-hating, prayer-neglecting age—a hundred years from now people wil be pointing the finger of scorn at us.

Maryville is one of the best church cities in America, but no city is perfect—lets' make Maryville a better city.

MAINE WENT REPUBLICAN

MADE CLEAN SWEEP IN ELECTION HELD YESTERDAY.

Reduced G. O. P. Majority—Democrats Are Much Pleased Over the Result.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Augusta, Me., Sept. 12.—The Republicans made a clean sweep in the election held yesterday. They elected Carl E. Milliken as governor over Gov. Oakley C. Curtis, who sought re-election, by a plurality of 13,335; Frederick Hale and Bert M. Fernald were elected United States senator, Hale's plurality being 9,771 and Fernald's being 12,536. The Republicans also elected four congressmen, and by wresting control of the Maine house from the Democrats will be able on joint ballot of the legislature to elect other state officers not chosen by the popular vote.

Chairman McCormick of the Democratic committee issued the following statement:

"The result of the election in Maine indicates a sweeping Democratic victory in November. I have never claimed that we would win in Maine, because I realized that to carry such a rock ribbed Republican stronghold in a presidential year would be practically impossible.

"We have materially reduced the usually large Republican majority, always obtained on national issues in that state, and that insures the election of President Wilson in November by an impressive majority, just as a Republican plurality of 12,500 in September, 1892, prefaced the election of President Cleveland in November.

"It is the first time United States senators have ever been elected in Maine by popular vote, and the sentiment as to national issues is to be gauged by the vote cast upon the same issues in other years."

HELD ELECTION OF OFFICERS

GIVES FIRST SERMON

SCOVILLE PLEASED WITH RECEPTION ON "RAINY EVENING."

DEPLORES WAR CRAZE

Evangelist Makes Great Impression on Crowd by Convincing Arguments and Pointed Remarks.

"Awake, awake, O Church of God!" Dr. Charles Reign Scoville used the immortal words of Dwight L. Moody as the keynote of his first sermon in the Maryville evangelistic campaign last night. He preached to the church members on "A Great Spiritual Revival." Despite the threatening weather a big crowd was present. The evangelist was pleased at the reception accorded him on a "rainy Monday evening."

"Man willing, we will have a great meeting," he declared, quoting the famous Joseph Parker, "right here in Maryville. How many are willing?—hands up."

Scores of hands were raised all over the audience.

"All right," he continued, "let's have a lot of 'Amens' during this campaign. The old 'Amen' corner should be revived."

Jokes Interspersed.

The evangelist interspersed several jokes in his opening remarks. His manner appeared to please the audience. At times he was in a pleading attitude, talking in a voice lowered almost to a whisper. Then suddenly he would launch into a fury as he lambasted sin and those who oppose revivals. He declared he was speaking the "bitter truth in love" when he upbraided ministers and professing Christians for not working as hard as they can for Christ.

"Mayville is a fine city," he declared, "but in this city are card tables in place of communion tables; godless gangs instead of church workers; persons who gamble instead of pray; girls whose feet do not lead to church services but whose feet go where there is no God; men and women, boys and girls, who are exceeding the speed limit to hell and not to the churches."

The audience leaned forward to catch every word.

"Examine your own lives," admonished the evangelist. "If your life is not clean, clean it up and go out and save others who need the new start."

Dr. Scoville hurled defiance at those who believe in war.

Scores Warring Nations.

"War is wrong," he roared. "It is shameful, disgraceful, dishonorable, despicable, damnable, unworthy, unnecessary, uncalled for and hellish. I would to God that the prince of peace might rule and wars might cease. Dueling is forbidden yet nations fight duels. Where's the difference? I don't care a rap whether you agree with me or not, war is making our world black.

"This is a God-hating, prayer-neglecting age. Nations are fighting because they have civilized instead of becoming regenerated, because they hav raised the college instead of the church. If Christ were followed there would be no war.

"Why not serve the Lord? Some men feel it an honor to serve in a lodge, in politics, in social or commercial circles, but they shrink from serving in the church.

"Daniel went to the lion's den with more willingness than some Christians go to prayer meeting. Some folks won't go to church yet if I'd been a politician they would have been here with eyes as big as fried goose eggs.

The Upstart Speaks.

"Some little gum chewing, cigarette smoking, frizzle headed upstart will stand off and say 'I don't believe in revivals.' You say you don't—well, your daddy, the devil, doesn't, either.

"I wish that everybody would say, 'God helping me, I am going to be out and out for Christ.' I wish that any one who doesn't believe that Christ can save a city would go to some of the cities where we have held revivals.

"Send any one to Jefferson City for instance to look into conditions since that city's big revival. Send a bartender, a gambler a church hater or one of those old high heeled, tight laced, frizzled headed, frescoed, poodle dog loving society dames who likes her parties better than she does her church. Even that kind would be forced to say a city with Christ is better than a city without.

Mrs. Scoville Sings.

The evangelist ended abruptly. But

THE COURT DOCKET

SEPTEMBER TERM OF COURT HAS 152 CASES SET.

MANY IMPORTANT CASES

The Gilmore Murder Case Will Probably Go Over to an Adjourned Term—Session to Be Short.

The September term of circuit court will convene Monday, September 25, and the docket is now being printed. It is thought that this court term will be in session a short time, as many of the attorneys are wanting only to try the important cases at this term and to continue the others. One reason for this is on account of the term coming so close to the election.

Judge W. C. Ellison will convene this term of court and will preside over the first two days of court. It is likely that another judge will be called in to preside over the rest of the court term.

The most important case on the docket is that of the state vs. Mrs. Q. A. Gilmore, charged with the murder of Mrs. Ella Shipps. It is thought probable that this case will be tried at an adjourned term of court to be held this fall.

On the criminal docket there are seven gaming cases, one case of selling liquor to minor, two cases of assault, two cases of prostitution. Fred James is charged with assault with intent to kill. Melvin Matthews is charged with forgery.

There are 152 cases docketed for this term. There are 18 parole cases, 16 divorce cases, 15 cases on the criminal docket, 36 equity cases, and 67 trial cases. The jury is called for the third day of court.

Another sensational suit on the docket for this term is the libel suit of Dora Davis vs. Chester Bancroft. A big railroad damage suit is that of William H. Houston vs. C. B. & Q.

The divorce cases will come up at the second day of court. The one of Mrs. Q. A. Gilmore vs. Q. A. Gilmore will not come up at this term. The other divorce cases are:

Sylvia Newman vs. Lewis Newman; James H. Goodwin vs. Josephine E. Goodwin; Minnie M. Williams vs. Henry O. Williams; Aeva E. Spargur vs. Dale H. Spargur; Hester Lee vs. Clyde A. Lee; Eva J. Murray vs. James C. Murray; Pansy Rush vs. Hubert Rush; Walter Johnson vs. Maud Johnson; Albert J. Luppold vs. Clara L. Luppold; Permelia Inglis vs. George W. Inglis; Alois Remele vs. Nelle Remele; Ethel Piveral vs. Clarence Piveral; Mary B. Hall vs. J. W. Hall; David M. Hopple vs. Jenie P. Hopple; Pauline Smith vs. Loren Smith.

MEETING FOR H. S. GIRLS

Mrs. Scoville Will Conduct Series of Conferences With Young Women After School.

Mrs. Arlene Dux Scoville will conduct a series of meeting for high school girls during the Charles Reign Scoville campaign, the first of which will be held at the tent after school Wednesday.

Mrs. Scoville is said to be an expert on questions confronting girls of high school age. However, she declares that she does not discuss some of the things to which many parents take exception. Wherever Mrs. Scoville has held such meetings in connection with the Scoville campaigns, reports are that she has given universal satisfaction.

Reassembling of Twentieth Century Members at Elks Club — Kate Schenck Discusses Work.

(Kate Schenck.)

The work of the Maryville clubwomen for the 1916-17 term which will be formally launched by the various organizations at different dates during this month will be featured by the formation of a Council of Clubs, if the plans so far under discussion mature as is expected.

This Council of Clubs will embrace both the city and rural clubs and the old city federation will be merged into this new construction. The addition of the rural clubs will give clubdom a larger scope and the members anticipate a very profitable work when the organization is completed.

Twentieth Century Club.

The Twentieth Century club, the largest in membership of the city clubs, reassembled this afternoon at the Elks club.

The officers of the club, Mrs. M. G. Tate, Mrs. C. D. Bellows, Mrs. Gallatin Craig, Mrs. C. C. Hellmers, Mrs. G. B. Holmes, Mrs. D. R. Baker, Miss Ruth Montgomery and Miss Lucie Davis received the members. Mrs. Tate, president, had charge of the meeting and briefly outlined the work of the club in general for the coming year.

Mrs. S. R. Beech, the only honorary member of the club, now a resident of San Diego, Cal., who is visiting in Maryville, was accorded the courtesy of a seat at the president's right during the formal session.

Outline Work of Division.

Mrs. L. E. White, head of the Shakespeare department, Mrs. R. L. McDougal of the Tourist, Mrs. B. M. Chandler of the Arts and Crafts and Mrs. A. F. Harvey of the Music department, each outlined the work of their division for the year. In conclusion of the serious part of the meeting, Mrs. G. B. Holmes, chairman of the membership committee, read the names of the new members and Mrs. Tate, on behalf of the club, welcomed them into its ranks. A visiting period followed and a cafeteria luncheon was served.

With the exception of the modern drama department, which was discontinued this year, the other departments will pursue their work after the plan used in former years. The Shakespeare members will read "The Winter's Tale" for the first part of the year, and "Cymbeline" for the second half. The plan of study is that of a character part being taken by an individual throughout the perusal of the book.

Russia Subject of Study.

as he drove home his points, the audience listened so intently that the least sound was audible. Mrs. Scoville walked quietly to the front of the platform and sang "I'll go where you want me to go." The crowd was visibly impressed and at the close filed out slowly, scores with heads bowed in deep thought.

The big choir sang to the delight of the audience and the director, Mr. Forsythe, before the sermon. Prayer was offered by Rev. Cox. and Rev. Holliday. It is predicted that a larger crowd will be out tonight as the meetings were the sole topic of conversation among church followers today.

The impromptu preachers' quartette—Hale, Cox, Holliday and Miller—was forced to respond to an encore.

The Scoville party quartette—Dr. Scoville, Waldraven, Parker and Forsythe—was roundly applauded for singing "The Little Brown Church."

The Rev. Mr. Miller of the Christian church and Rev. Waldraven of the Scoville party carried the crowd into the clouds, singing a duet, "Power in the Blood."

Dr. Scoville will tell the crowd tonight how many dollars, halves, quarters, dimes, nickels and pennies were dropped into the enamel collection pans last night.

"They will come by land and by water the night the Presbyterians and Baptists are here," laughed Dr. Scoville, in speaking of the Presbyterian-Baptist night tomorrow night. The crowd applauded.

"Rev. Cox wants to meet you Methodists at this post so you can get posted and 'cox-ed and primed' for your night," said the evangelist in making an announcement.

The tent looked like a caucus hall after the service last night. In different sections Dr. Scoville met the ushers, the Rev. Mr. Cox met the Methodists, the Rev. Mr. Hale met the Baptists, the Rev. Mr. Miller met the Christians, the Rev. Mr. Waldraven met the extension committee, the Rev. Mr. Miller met the captains of the prayer meetings and Musical Director Forsythe met the choir.

FIRST TRAGEDY OF STRIKE

Green Motorman Loses Control of Car, Collides With Jitney, Kills Two, Injures Nine.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

New York, Sept. 12.—The fifth day of the traction strike opened with a tragedy when a trolley operated by a green motorman was lost control of on a down grade and crashed into two jitney buses, killing two and injuring nine, four so badly that they are expected to die.

The general strike situation today is worse than at any other time.

Owing to the alarming increase of violence attending the operation of the surface and elevated cars in defiance of the strikers, the chief inspector issued orders to the police to use their revolvers.

MORTALITY RATE INCREASING

For Persons Over 45—Lack of Health-Giving Exercise, Superfluity of Diet Bring Early Decay.

What profiteth a man that he gain the whole world yet lose his health?

Naturalists say that long ago the prehistoric waters were infested with a species of enormous shark which finally became extinct by reason of the workings of its voracious appetite. Thus nature eliminates the over-fed.

The desire for ease of life and plentiful diet is universal and is the great stimulus of man and animals alike. When man becomes greedy and takes more ease and food and drink than is his share, nature discards him.

In the race for power and place, for ease of circumstance and relief from the stimulus of hunger, the modern man is apt to forget that unless he is careful of his body he will soon be made to suffer for the infraction of nature's inexorable physical law. With the loss in body tone comes an equal loss in mental acuity and the brain which for a time was abde to operate despite the complaints of an over-fed, under-exercised, self-poised body, stops working.

Statisticians have discovered that the mortality rate of persons in the United States over 45 years of age is increasing. The strenuous life of today is not alone responsible for this. Lack of health-giving exercise, superfluity of diet, lack of restoring sleep, over-stimulation, the high pressure of the race for power, wealth and position, plus physical neglect, these bring early decay. The goal is reached, wealth is amassed, honor, position and power are just being grasped when the apple of accomplishment turns to the ashes of dissolution. The brilliant mind becomes clouded, the steady hand is no longer accurate, the eye which once gazed fearlessly on the whole world is dimmed, and it is not long before the final break up occurs. All of this was entirely preventable.

Other things being equal it is the man who leads the well-balanced life who lasts the longest, whose work to the end is uniformly the best, he who neither overworks nor overplays, neither overeats, overdrinks, nor oversleeps, he who maintains a standard of simple healthy diet in moderation, who offsets mental work with physical recreation, who is as honest with his own body as he is with his own business. When success comes to such an one his physical and mental condition is such that he can enjoy in peace of mind and contentment of body the fruits of his labors.

The regulations of U. S. public health health service state: "It is the duty of officers to maintain their physical as well as their professional fitness. To this end they shall be allowed time for recreation and study whenever their official duties will permit." If the government regards it as essential that its sanitary experts shall be safeguarded in this way, is it not equally important to every citizen that he similarly maintain a high standard of physical integrity?

The Melon and the Gardener.

Mr. Gardener comes around and gives a thump,
Then I am on the way, bump, bump,
Sometimes many a mile I go and I am very nice after I am plucked under the snow.

Sometimes I meet a stingy old guy,
A nickel is all he has got
Then Mr. Gardener drives in a trot
For I prefer bump and bump than to rot.

Such a stingy old guy
Ought to be compelled to sit on a boil and
Not allowed to plant me in this good old Missouri soil,
For I am worth a nickel a slice.

State of Missouri and the "New Engleberg Abbey" was later changed to "Conception Abbey." The same year, 882, saw the construction of a substantial convent and of an academy or young women. In 1883 the college or boys was built; in 1890 the girls' orphanage; in 1899, the parish hall; in 1902, a new boys' college, a new Sisters' convent and Sisters' chapel, one of the finest in the United States. In 1903 a small cemetery chapel was erected in the very spot where the high altar of the old church had stood. Since then two more wings have also been added to the abbey.

Large Church Built.

Meanwhile the parishioners clamored for a more worthy temple of worship. The church which Father Power had erected had been enlarged by Father Frowin in 1874. Yet, a much larger house of worship became an absolute necessity in order to accommodate the 1,500 members of the Conception parish. It was finally built on the north side of the monastery in 1889 and 1890 and consecrated with unusual pomp and ceremony.

In January, 1874, the Reverend Abbot Frowin established at Conception a school for the education of the younger members of his monastery. This was enlarged into a seminary in the fall of 1880 and transformed into a regular college in September, 1883.

Has Many Missions.

The missions taken care of by the monastery priests in Nodaway county are numerous and successful, as are those in other parts of the country. Those in other parts of the country are: Four parishes in Idaho, six Indian missions in Dakota, and twelve parishes or missions in different parts of Missouri. Those institutions of Nodaway county under the spiritual direction of the Conception Fathers are: Conception College; the Benedictine Sisters, with their pupils and orphans at Clyde; the parish at Clyde; St. Mary's parish with St. Francis hospital at Maryville; and the missions at Parnell and Burlington Junction.

The Reverend Abbot and Father Frowin will spend tomorrow and next day at Fort Yates visiting Father Martin, the priest who was instrumental in making peace between the Indians and the whites in the Sitting Bull trouble. He acted as mediator between the Indians and the peacemakers when both sides could not agree. They will return to Conception Saturday.

WRITER AIR MEN.

New York Aviation Club Has a New Preparedness Plan.

WOULD BE USEFUL IN WAR.

J. C. Mars, Who, With Augustus Post, Will Be In Charge of Training School, Believes They Could Fill Important Missions For Government.

New York.—New York will soon have a corps of newspaper aviators, according to the plans of the New York Flying Yacht club, whose officials have offered to give courses in aviation to all newspaper men capable of becoming aviators. The club recently received permission to use the North river water front at One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street for a landing stage for hydroaeroplanes and aeroplanes, and floats, hangars and machine shops will be erected there in the near future.

J. C. Mars and Augustus Post, aviators, will be in charge of the training school for newspaper men, and, with Francis W. Clinton, acting chairman of the club, they believe experience in observation will make the novices excellent air scouts in time of war.

In discussing the plan, Mr. Mars said the club not only would maintain a landing station for sportsmen and business men who would commute by air from their country homes to the city, but would also teach civilians to fly.

"We believe that newspaper men will make good aviators," he said, "and we plan to give them free instruction in the handling of all types of flying craft. In the past newspaper men have done great service for their country, and in case of war these men may have an opportunity to lend valuable aid to the government. As couriers of the air, scouts and members of the coast patrol they could fill important missions."

MADE WAR ON CATERPILLARS.

Reported Casualties In Philadelphia Campaign Were 78,939.

Philadelphia.—Complete reports from the war of the school garden children conducted for the extermination of caterpillars have been prepared by Miss Caro Miller, directing the school gardens, and show a grand total of 78,939 caterpillars, cocoons and egg masses annihilated. It was explained that each egg mass contained 500 potential caterpillars, so that millions of caterpillars were exterminated in the egg stage by the children's campaign.

The purpose of the school garden director is to take the champion caterpillar exterminators to visit the mayor to receive his official recognition of their public service. A girl made the best record, killing 11,356 caterpillars.

Cries of Wrecked Passengers Haunted Man Freed of Blame.

Toledo, O.—Dennis W. Leonard, engineer on the Twentieth Century limited train, which was wrecked at Amherst, O., March 29 last, was found dead in bed at his home recently. Heart disease, superinduced by worry over the wreck, is given by physicians as the cause of death.

He was absolved from blame in the catastrophe, but had been unable to keep out of his mind the sight of the wreckage and the cries of the mangled passengers.

Leonard was fifty-two years old and had been with the New York Central thirty-five years.

WOMEN "ROOKIES" BAR MEN.

Masculines Can't Watch Fair "Soldiers" Drill at Lake Geneva Camp.

Lake Geneva, Wis.—Men henceforth are to be barred from the national service school camp of the women's division of the Navy League of the United States—that is, all except instructors, unless they have passes properly signed and countersigned. This was the edict of Major General Commanding F. D. Countis to protect the 150 fair "rookies" from annoyance in the future.

Among the new rules is one which prohibits the girls from wearing their hair down their backs.

FOOTBALL AT NORMAL

THE CALL FOR CANDIDATES WILL BE ISSUED TOMORROW.

Schedule Has Not Been Completed but the Big Game With Kirksville Thanksgiving Here.

Hip, Hurrah! Get out of the road there. Don't you see that football approaching? Well, that's what Maryville can look for this year. Both the Normal and the high school will again have fast ball teams.

The Normal has done exceptionally well in all lines without football but President Richardson has decided that she can do better with football. The Normal discontinued the game a number of years ago for various reasons but conditions seem ripe for its revival.

So, with the meeting of classes tomorrow there will be a call issued for candidates for the football team. This is the news direct from Coach Palfreyman, who will have charge of the Normal squad. The coach says he wants every man who weighs between 75 and 300 pounds but none over 300 until special arrangements are made with him. This precaution is taken as a protection to other teams, we presume. Director Hanson says that complete new equipment has been ordered and the Normal proposes to start the boys off with a fine look both on their faces and on their backs as well. As yet it has not been difinitely decided who will be the assistant coach but there are a number of old football men on the faculty who could do credit to the position. Prof. Swinehart has a long football story following him and Prof. Belting while on the Illinois University squad was chosen guard on the All-Western team during the years 1910-11.

All the boys seem eager to get into the game and while it is not yet definitely what material there will be a good bunch is expected to answer the call. The schedule has not been completed but the big game will probably be with Kirksville Normal at Maryville Thanksgiving.

The Growing Girl
Needs a
Gossard Misses Corset

SCHOOL SEATS were designed with an eye toward durability more than comfort and if there is ever a time when the growing girl needs proper support, it is during school hours. The Gossard Junior and Gossard Misses Corsets are extremely soft and pliable, giving ideal support for the active growing girl at a period when complete freedom is imperative, but when the developing figure should be gently directed along proper, natural lines.

The importance of the health-giving support and control of these corsets cannot be over-estimated.

The Gossard Junior, priced at $1.50, was designed for the needs of the girl from ten to twelve years of age, and the Gossard Misses, priced at $2.00, fills the requirements of the little Miss of twelve and over. Both corsets are very light weight and lightly boned.

A fitting, of course, incurs no obligation.

Services for Arkoe Young Man to Be Held in Maryville.

The funeral of John Ambrose of near Arkoe, who died at Longmont, Col., Saturday evening, wil take place at the Christian church of Maryville at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. The Rev. Mr. McKanzie of Iowa, who baptized the young man when he was received into the church, will conduct the services. Arrangements for a place of burial have not yet been made.

Sardine Fishing.

In sardine fishing there are many uncertainties. There is a twenty-eight foot rise and fall of tide in the bay of Fundy, and especially constructed wooden picket inclosures are staked out in the water to gather in the fish. A man erected an inclosure in what he supposed to be excellent fishing territory, but got nothing. He deplored his loss and for a time failed to go near it. "Why don't you seine it again?" somebody asked. "What's the use?" he replied. "Let me try it," the other persisted. "Yes, and you may have all the fish you get." The other man pulled out $1,700 worth at one haul.

RATS IN THE CHICKEN YARD.

Plan for Destroying Them at the University Poultry Department.

Rats cause great losses in many poultry yards, but at the Missouri College of Agriculture we have had no trouble in getting rid of them by poisoning with a mixture of two parts corn meal and one part sugar of lead. The hand should not come in contact with the poison feed, and all other feeds should be removed so the rats cannot get them.

The poisoned feed may be kept away from the chickens by putting it in a tray nailed to the middle of the bottom of a box at least a foot square and six inches high. The box should be closed on all sides except for a nummber of inch-and-a-half holes bored through the sides near the bottom.

Burn or bury the dead rats so the chickens cannot eat them. The decayed flesh of even unpoisoned rats is likely to cause limber neck, as ptomaine poison is called in chickens. —H. L. Kemster, Missouri Agricultural Experiment Station.

ROAD DAYS OCT. 4-5

Governor Major in Proclamation Calls Upon Citizens to Improve the Highways.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Jefferson City, Sept. 12.—In a proclamation Governor Major designates October 4 and 5 as "good roads" days, and calls upon all the citizens of the state to join in helping improve the highways.

"I selected these dates," said the governor," for the reason that farm work is not urgent at that time, and roads and weather conditions are favorable for the best possible results to be acomplished.

In his proclamation the governor declares the days set apart as holidays, and requests that all business be suspended so far as possible, and that every ablebodied citizen labor upon the roads.

The city and country newspapers are called upon to assist in organizing the work and the same is asked of all county officials, road overseers, good roads and automobile organizations and all commercial and "booster" clubs.

He urges that the work done be of a permanent character. The public servants of Misouri he says have done more in the carrying the gospel of good roads than those of any other state in the union.

The women of the state are requested to prepare and serve lunches to the road workers.

WHAT ABOUT THE HESSIAN FLY?

What T. J. Talbert of the Missouri College of Agriculture Writes About It.

1. Question. Can the Hessian fly be controlled?

Answer. Yes. It can be controlled easier than almost any other injurious field crop insect.

2. Question. Does sowing wheat late help to control the fly?

Answer. Yes, if the wheat is sown on or soon after the fly-free date. For the northern third of Missouri the date is about October 1; central third, October 8; and southern third, October 16.

3. Question. Well, you are wrong there, because I sowed my wheat on October 15 last fall, and I live in Boone county, and this year there were many Hessian flies in my wheat field. How can you explain this?

Answer. Your wheat went through the fall and winter practically free from injury by the Hessian fly because the wheat came up after nearly all the adult flies were dead. You noticed no injury by the fly this spring until about the last of April. The Hessian flies that destroyed your wheat crop came from early sown fields of wheat or volunteer wheat within a mile of your wheat field, and this early sown wheat or volunteer wheat showed the fly injury last fall.

4. Question. You are right. My neighbor, just across the road, sowed his wheat last fall on September 25, and the flies damaged it badly last fall. But what can I do?

Answer. Organize your neighborhood and co-operate with every wheat grower in your community in putting into practice the measures that will control the pest. If possible, get all your neighbors to destroy their volunteer wheat and delay sowing until the fly-free date.

Write to the College of Agriculture, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri, for a poster bulletin telling how to control the Hessian fly. Post where your neighbors can see it, as unless they fight the fly with you, their flies may kill your wheat.

Miss Gertrude Cole spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cole, south of Maryville.

It makes a fellow mad to pay a bill twice. Nearly everyone has paid some bill twice, because he could not prove he had paid it the first time having paid it in currency.

There is a feeling of permanency and security to the person who writes his check for the payment of bills.

If you are not a customer of this bank and are not paying your bills by check we invite you to make this your banking home.
